

PROMOTING PROJECT TEAMS

– A SEC Group Seminar

27 November 2003

There is much talk about the need for the industry to work together more closely to improve its service to clients. If your company wants to avoid being left behind and is keen to discover the commercial benefits that a collaborative approach to construction has to offer, then this seminar is a must for you.

These questions (and others) will be addressed:

- How can specialist-engineering contractors become involved in teamworking arrangements?
- What is the business case for becoming involved in such arrangements?
- How will my company benefit?

The seminar is organised by the Specialist Engineering Contractors (SEC) Group and will be chaired by its Chairman, Trevor Hursthouse – Managing Director of Goodmarriott & Hursthouse Ltd.

It will be held on Thursday 27 November 2003 at the Novotel Hotel, Bostock Lane, Long Eaton, Notts NG10 4EP – starting at 2.00pm and will finish at 6.00pm.

The programme and speakers will include:

- 'Strategic Forum Toolkit for Integrating the Industry'
– Martin Davis of EMCOR Drake & Scull
- 'Benefits for the Specialist Engineering Contractor'
– David Harrison, Managing Director, of HMC Limited
- 'A representative of the NHS Estates ProCure 21 team has also been invited to speak'. Government Clients (e.g. NHS Estates) are already demanding that teams are established to deliver their projects.

The Seminar is free to members of the SEC Group Associations. To attend simply fill in your details over page and return to:
